KITCHEN

Designer Barbara McLane offered creative solutions for functionality within a sophisticated kitchen design.

One of the owners is an amateur chef who likes to entertain in the kitchen. "Their family and friends frequently cook together, therefore they needed more appliances than an average kitchen would require," McLane said.

State-of-the-art Dacor KitchenAid

Fisher & Paykel and Sub-Zero appliances combine with natural stone, including granite, marble, onyx and alabaster. A built-in Dacor Coffee System, above right, dispenses espresso, cappuccino and hot water for tea or chocolate with the touch of a button.

Two opposing sinks, shown right, allow more than one cook to work together for a shared cooking experience.
